

Housing Finance Commission

RCW 43.180

The purpose of the Housing Finance Commission is to make funds available at affordable rates for low and moderate income housing and non-profit capital facilities throughout the state. The commission issues nonrecourse revenue bonds and participates in federal, state, and local housing programs while encouraging the use of Washington State forest products in residential construction.

Agency Local Funds

Housing Finance Commission Fund

The Housing Finance Commission Fund is used to pay all expenses of the Commission. Revenue accrues to the fund from fees and charges, contributions and grants, and proceeds from funds in the custody of the Commission.
